Accommodation

The scheme is made up of fourteen one bedroom flats, two two bedroom flats, fourteen two bedroom bungalows and two one bedroom bungalows. One of these properties is a guest room available to the families of Sheltered tenants.

Local Amenities

Local shops including a hairdressers are within walking distance and the village has a post office come general store which includes a small cafe. There are three public houses in the village and one of them serves 'Pension Specials' lunches, which is very popular with a number of people who live at Castle Gardens. There is a Day Centre in the village hall every Wednesday. The nearest GP is in Kettering but there is a collection and delivery service for prescriptions. Dental services and opticians are also in Kettering town centre.

Places of Worship

St Mary Magdalene Church in Geddington is a stones throw away and there is a United Reformed Chapel. All other denominations may need to travel into Kettering or one of the local areas.

Scheme Activities

Regular activities take place in the communal lounge. These include bingo, afternoon teas and the occasional group outings being arranged. All activities both locally and internally are advertised on the notice board
